Puerto Varas - Chile

Follow Tourlite's Southern Trail and discover some of the most beautiful and memorable scenery anywhere in the world. Buenos Aires, Argentina's cosmopolitan capital, begins our Southern Trail. Home of the fiery, passionate Tango, life here is lived in high style and with zest! Bariloche is a wonderful alpine-like resort. Savor the magnificence of the scenic Lake District as you cross from Argentina into Chile to the town of Puerto Varas on the Patagonian frontier, almost Northern European in appearance. The snow-clad Andes are a dramatic backdrop for Chile's capital, Santiago. Situated between mountains and the sea, the city enjoys a soft and gentle climate.

Highlight this memorable tour with a visit to always exciting Brazil. Choice "B" will begin with magnificent Rio de Janeiro to stroll the celebrated sands of Copacabana and Ipanema and to experience the spectacular sights and sounds of this legendary city. Then on to marvelous Iguassu Falls one of the natural splendors of the world. Higher than Niagara and more than two-and-a-half miles wide, Iguassu forms part of the border between Argentina and Brazil.
