Optional Tours from Manuel Antonio

- 1. Manuel Antonio National Park Tour: $45
Naturalist guides will explain the history and geography of the area, pointing out sloths, monkeys, iguanas, and a multitude of insects and birds during this very informative three-hour walk. Duration - Half Day
- 2. Jungle Horseback Riding: $70
Join a relaxing half-day ride into the rain forest of Villa Nueva for great birding opportunities and a chance to see some typical Costa Rican Countryside. Duration - Half Day
- 3. Rain Maker River Walk: $75
Walk along trails, which weave through cascading waterfalls and lush jungle landscape guided by Nature Interpreters. You'll have a chance to swim in cool crystal clear pools deep in the tropical rainforest. Duration - Half Day
- 4. Rain Maker Canopy Walk: $85
Rainmaker's Canopy Walk is the area's most user friendly suspension bridge system. Six sections total 820 ft spanning from platforms attached to massive hardwood trees and reaching to heights over 180 ft above the waterfalls. Duration - Half Day
- 5. Damas Island Estuary Kayak: $75
Paddle the smooth protected inland waterways and explore the unique ecosystem of an island mangrove. Abundant with wildlife, the Damas area also offers a swimming beach and a great seafood restaurant for lunch. Duration - Half Day (L)
- 6. Savegre River Rafting: $115
This adventure kicks off with a 4-wheel drive trip into the remote valley that is home to the Rio Savegre. Perfect for all experience levels, the river offers an exciting selection of class II, III and IV rapids as well as pristine waterfalls, swimming holes and remarkable variety of birds. Duration - Full Day (L)

Prices are per person, minimum 2 pax except Savegre River Rafting Minimum 4 pax.

Si Como No

"Si Como No", which means "yes, Why not?", reflects the warm, and engaging personality of Costa Rican people. The rooms offer bath with shower, a/c, mini-bar, king or double bed, ceiling fan, telephone, and safe. The free form pool includes a Jacuzzi, waterfall, 30 foot water slide, and swim-up pool bar. The sundecks command spectacular jungle and ocean views. Dining options include the casual The Rico Tico Bar 'n Grill or the upscale, yet casual Restaurante Claro Que Seafood & Bar El Zarpe.
